

EARLY YEARS NETWORK NEWS

13th October 2017

“Home corner to contemporary living” with Caroline Fewster

Tuesday 24th October
6.15pm to 8.30pm

This FREE workshop, offered by RDA Pilbara, EPIC, One Tree Community Services and Woodside, looks at necessary practical skills children will utilise into their future. Play and learning spaces can promote a learning focus on contemporary living with experiences that strengthen children’s ability to think with flexibility, innovation, collaboration and problem solving skills.

Guest presenter, Caroline Fewster developed the Bond University’s Bachelor of Children’s Services programme and has enjoyed a long and varied career working with children in a wide range of Children’s services, care and teaching situations.

COMMUNITY ALCOHOL PERCEPTION SURVEY

Community members aged 18 years and over are invited to complete the Community Alcohol Perception Survey now until 15 October 2017.

This survey is being administered by the West Pilbara Alcohol and Other Drug Management Group, which brings together local service providers to address alcohol related harm in Karratha, Roebourne, Wickham, Point Samson, Dampier and Onslow.

The information gathered through this survey will be used to inform local strategies towards addressing alcohol related issues in the local area.
